

QMUNITY

GAB Youth Program Drop-in Volunteer

The organization: QMUNITY is BC's Queer, Trans and Two-Spirit Resource Centre which exists to improve queer, trans and Two-Spirit lives. We do this in three ways: by supporting individuals, by strengthening our communities, and by leading the way towards legal and lived equality.

QMUNITY operates on the traditional, ancestral and unceded territories of Indigenous peoples across British Columbia. In particular, QMUNITY offices are located on the Coast Salish territories of the Musqueam, Squamish and Tsleil-Waututh Nations.

The program: Our GAB youth drop-ins are a community-oriented space where youth aged 14-25 can hang out and seek support. Drop-in volunteers help facilitate and support a safer space for youth to meet similar people and to just be themselves, and are coordinated and supervised by the Specialist, Youth Programming and social worker. Drop-In takes place from 4-6pm on Wednesdays and 6-8pm on Fridays.

Responsibilities:

- Playing games/facilitating activities with youth.
- Engaging with new/shy youth who might have difficulties joining activities and conversations.
- Supporting youth by providing active listening and referrals to staff where appropriate
- Meeting with the Specialist, Youth Programming and social worker for 30-minutes before and after scheduled drop-in times.
- Volunteer check-in with Specialist, Youth Programming after 3rd shift.

Qualifications:

- Friendly and socially confident
- Lived queer, trans, and/or Two Spirit experience.
- 21 years of age or over.
- Completion of a Criminal Record Check.
- Strong knowledge of anti-oppressive frameworks.
- Passionate about creating safer spaces for LGBTQ2S+ youth.
- Experience working with marginalized communities.
- Strong ability to support and advocate for trans youth.
- Experience working with Indigenous communities.
- Approachable/flexible.
- Background in mental health/counselling support work is an asset.
